

Domo Separator

Since the duty was taken off imported goods, I am able to sell the Domo Separator at a very low price. They are made in Stockholm out of the best Swedish bessemer steel, pressed disks, no seams, easy running and won't wear out. Sweden is known all over the world for its iron and of which the Domo Separator is made. I also sell the Empire and have them in stock.

I will sell Buggies again this year for $39.90 and up.

Also the well-known Bain and Studebaker Wagons that need no other mention as they have been in use for 60 years.

When you buy from us you can always get the extras.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

The House of Prayer.

Sunday morning sermon topic, "Grieve Not the Holy Spirit of God." Sunday evening, "The Pearl of Great Price." Brother Lindblad reports from Butte Falls that at the two weeks' services both the attendance and the Spirit were good and that they are desirous of forming and building a church there. He is home this week and goes to Peyton next week.

Congregational Church.

The services next Sunday at the Congregational church will be very helpful from many considerations. At the morning hour the pastor will preach a Palm Sunday sermon, "The Triumphal Entry Into Jerusalem." The musical program will be as follows: A solo, "The Palms," Mrs. Conway; duet, P. C. Stratton, Mrs. John Herndon of Eugene. The sermon for the evening will be another in the series; subject, "The Ministry and the Church." Special music. Solo, "Oh, Dry Those Tears," Mr. Willison; violin obligato, Mr. Reno. Congregational singing. A very cordial welcome given to everybody.

The regular quarterly communion services of the Presbyterian church will be held next Sunday morning. At the evening service Dr. Carnahan will speak on "The Woman and the Serpent, or the Power of Influence."

Following is the program of a sacred concert to be given Sunday evening at the Baptist church by the combined Elks Quartet and the Mixed Quartet of the Baptist church: Hymn by congregation. Mixed Quartet—"The Radiant Morn." Elks Quartet—"Lead, Kindly Light." Duet—"Hope Beyond," Messrs. Strickland and Rasor. Hymn by congregation. Address by the pastor. Mixed Quartet—"The Storm." Elks Quartet—"Crossing the Bar."

The Congregational church will observe Passion week with services each evening next week. The events of the days of the last week in Christ's life shall be the theme for each evening. Special music will also add to the services. It is hoped that these will be largely attended by the membership of the church, and the general public is invited.

The annual thank offering of the Missionary Society of the Congregational church is being held this afternoon and evening at the church. Dinner will be served at six o'clock and there will be a good program given in the evening.

New Theater To Be "The Vining"

The Record stated last week that Ashland's new theatre would probably be named "The Rogue" and at the time that name was practically settled upon. The public has practically changed the name since then and in deference to popular demand the new structure will be christened what nearly everybody thought it should be from the start, namely, "The Vining." This is official this time—the name has been sent in thus to the ticket printers and the experts who will work out the design for the marquee over the main entrance.

The theatre is rising rapidly—the interior being largely roughed in. The side and back walls have now been raised about as far as the men can go by the wheelbarrow and inclined plane route. The rest of the walls will require the building of a lift. The steel lathing is going on in the dressing rooms. Men will soon be at work on the roof. Forty men were on the job Tuesday of this week.

The contract for the plumbing was taken by the Warner Mercantile Company and A. L. Carter—the former furnishing the materials and the latter doing the work. The electrical wiring is being done by day work—both the Danford and Jordan shops furnishing workmen to rush the job to completion. As the wiring all passes through conduits the job is more extensive than the ordinary wiring of a building the size.

Fine Program
For April 8 and 9

The sixth annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society is to be held in Ashland Methodist church Wednesday and Thursday, April eighth and ninth. Among the noted workers from abroad will be Mrs. A. M. Fisher of Portland, Miss Frances Meader late of Topeka Kansas, Mrs. Maude Kenworthy MacLean of Roseburg, Mrs. E. O. Eldridge of Medford—district president, Mrs. A. E. Ogg late of Madras India. A cordial invitation is extended to you to be present and enjoy the following fine program:

SPIRITUALISTS OBSERVE

60TH ANNIVERSARY

The sixty-sixth anniversary of modern spiritualism was observed by the Truth Seekers' Society in Ashland Sunday afternoon. An interesting program was rendered at the residence of Mrs. A. A. Young on Granite street, members being present from various sections of the valley. The leading issues and progress of spiritualism from a demonstrable scientific standpoint were reviewed by W. H. Brees of Talent.

In addition to the address by Mr. Brees there were instrumental solos by Misses Anna Dunn, Glen Roberts and Bonnie Jennings, original poems by Meadames Young and Sayle of Ashland and Mrs. Roberts of Talent—the latter written by the lady's nephew, reading by Miss Floesie Briscoe with musical accompaniment, vocal selections by Talent quartet, Miss Francis Hamlin. Mrs. Young gave messages and Miss Louise Lennart gave cup and palm readings. A social hour and refreshments followed.
